Cox & Co are pleased to offer this recently renovated bungalow, which showcases a modern finish throughout. It has a private garden, off-street parking, and a garage.

Hurstpierpoint High Street is only an eight-minute walk away (0.3 miles). It has a vibrant village atmosphere and a bustling High Street, including a greengrocer, deli, butchers, Post Once, four restaurants, three public houses, and a church. Hurstpierpoint and Hassocks both have a range of revered state and private schools.

The larger village of Hassocks is only 0.9 miles away, and its mainline train station provides regular rail services to London and Brighton City Centres.

Situated along a popular road close to the village centre, this detached bungalow has been the subject of a recent renovation. It includes a newly fitted kitchen and shower room, completely re-wired throughout, and benefiting from a new heating system. The bungalow has been internally re-modelled and styled to complement a more modern lifestyle.

The wonderfully light sitting room, which benefits from a sizable bay window, is located at the front of the property. The kitchen has a range of integrated appliances, a breakfast bar, and a helpful pantry area. Two double bedrooms look out over the rear garden and an open space in the hallway.

A shower room with a large walk-in shower services the two bedrooms. The private rear garden comprises a large curved rear patio and an area of lawn surrounded by colourful, well-stocked shrub and plant borders. The front garden is hard landscaped for ease of maintenance, with a recently laid shingle area providing street parking for two cars and access to the attached garage.

The property is being sold with vacant possession and no onward chain.
